

Dove Call

Just a sitting and a rocking
In the place I want to be
Trees dancing in the wind
For as far as I can see
White clouds sail the blue
Ever changing master painting
Birds singing songs of spring
With the notes softly raining
Then the dove spoke of love
With a call that touches soul
Like a shot in the dark
Through my heart a feeling stole
Don't know what it is
But I know I'll feel the same
When I hear the dove call
With the song touched with pain
